Dear Zoo by Rod Campbell

Dear Zoo is a great book to introduce the early literacy skills Talking and Phonological Awareness to your child. Hearing the rhythm of language and making the sounds of animals contribute to phonological awareness, which is hearing sounds in words. This is one of the skills that researchers have found helps with learning to read.

Cloth or board books with animal sounds are ideal for babies as they are often easier for a child to attempt to imitate than “real” words. Point to objects in the book and name them; change your voice as you read aloud and make the sounds of the animals the baby sees in the book. Ask your child questions about the animals on the page. “Where is the lion?” Pause, point, and answer for really young children, “Oh, there’s the lion!”

Hearing and learning animal sounds helps children hear different kinds of sounds. “What does a lion say?” Pause and wait for your child to respond. “Yes, a Lion says Roar!” Having your child hear and make the sounds of the animals is one enjoyable way to help develop phonological awareness because eventually they will be able to hear the smaller sounds in words.

Any book can be read at your child’s level

Some children benefit from a 'less is more' approach when learning to talk. Cutting extra words helps them focus on learning new vocabulary. When reading this book, match the amount of words you use to your child’s level. For children who are just starting out with words, use just the animal names “elephant, giraffe.” For toddlers who are beginning to combine words, add an extra word “bye bye elephant...too heavy,” “goodbye giraffe... too tall”

For older children, ask how many syllables the animal’s name has. Clap it out. (El-e-phant, Gir-affe). Ask them what sound it starts with and see if they can think of anything else that starts with that sound. (Lion starts with the L sound, so does Llama and Letter.) Ask your child which one is their favorite animal? Do you think it would make a good pet? What animal would you like to get from the zoo?

If you have ever been to the zoo with your child, talk to them about what they remember.

Here are some song and rhymes about Zoo Animals.

Boa Constrictor

I'm being swallowed by a boa constrictor
I'm being swallowed by a boa constrictor
I'm being swallowed by a boa constrictor
And I don't like it very much!

Oh no, oh no he swallowed my toe, he swallowed my toe

Oh gee, oh gee, he's up to my knee, he's up to my knee

Oh fiddle, oh fiddle, he's up to my middle, he's up to my middle

Oh heck, oh heck, he's up to my neck, he's up to my neck

Oh dread, oh dread, he swallowed my (GULP!!) head!!

"Going to the Zoo" by Raffi

Mommy's taking us to the zoo tomorrow,
Zoo tomorrow, zoo tomorrow,
Mommy's taking us to the zoo tomorrow
And we can stay all day.

Chorus:

We're going to the zoo, zoo, zoo
How about you, you you?
You can come too, too, too
We're going to the zoo, zoo zoo.

Look at the monkeys swinging in the trees,
Swinging in the trees, swinging in the trees,
Look at all the monkeys swinging in the trees,
We can stay all day.

Chorus

Look at all the crocodiles swimming in the water,
Swimming in the water, swimming in the water,
Look at all the crocodiles swimming in the water
We can stay all day.

Chorus

Yes, Mommy's taking us to the zoo tomorrow,
Zoo tomorrow, zoo tomorrow
Mommy's taking us to the zoo tomorrow
And we can stay all day.

Elephants, zebras, and bears,

And bears!

Lions, tigers,

Elephants, zebras, and bears!
